ALSO PART OF YOUR JOB TO TAKE BREAKS
WHenever
YOU CAN.

ISN'T THAT RIGHT

IRIS?

THAT IS
...

BUT, MY BODY IS
...

YOU SHOULD KNOW,
I THINK
IRIS IS LOVELY

ROARING

▲ When his village was burned down by the Titans, Jōn took shelter with Karaba, becoming a mobile suit pilot.

The Titans emblem is a bird of prey with spread wings.

▶ Jamitov, the Commander-in-Chief of the Titans, took advantage of the Delaz conflict in U.C. 0083 to eliminate political opponents within the Federation.

THE ELITE TITAN FORCE

At first, the Titans were just a single unit, but after a power expansion bill was passed by Parliament, they were given command over the entire Earth Federation Forces.

▲ Paptimus Scirocco murdered Jamitov towards the end of the reign of the Titans and took control of the organization.

The outbreak and end of the Gryps War, conflict with the AEUG.

U.C. 0087. An incident involving a Gundam Mk-II started the conflict between AEUG and the Titans, and was one of the many disputes prior to the start of the Gryps War. Further conflicts with the AEUG gained public scrutiny on the competence of the Titans. Meanwhile, the Titans used their power to conceal their oppressive motivations and increasing losses of their own forces in battle. It was the public exposure and internal conflict that brought the reign of the Titans to an end.

▲ Char's speech given in Parliament at Dakar. Speaking as a representative of the AEUG, he was successful in swaying public opinion against the Titans.

JAMITOV HYMEN

The Commander-In-Chief of the Titans, holding the rank of General in the Federation Armed Forces. A former financial bureaucrat, he took over the faction from his superior and founded the Titans.

TITANS PERSONNEL

Since most of the members were from earth, many Titans felt a sense of privilege. It is said that the soldiers were treated as one rank higher than the ordinary soldiers in the Federation Forces.

▲ Some Titans officers openly assaulted and harassed civilians, a behaviour that contributed to their downfall.

In addition to their own military arsenals, the Titans received weapons from companies such as Anaheim Electronics.

The Gundam Gullibursti was originally developed for Titans use.

TITANS MOBILE SUITS

Initially, their main forces used the RGM-76Q GM Quel. As their power expanded, they developed and deployed a variety of their own suits with various arsenals. Models included variable suits and Newtype-only machines.

This model of GM Quel was used in the destruction of Jom's village.
